

Refund Policy

For My Junna Subscribers who are month-to-month, a 30 day notice by email is required to stop all payments. The subscriber will be billed on the first of the month one last invoice the following month after notice is given. The subscriber is responsible for exporting any client data as needed.

For yearly subscribers and those who belong to APHA who have paid a year in advance, My Junna will refund all money with the exception of $250 service charge within 30 days notice of starting services. After the 30 days, no refunds will be issued. The subscriber is responsible for exporting any client data as needed.